Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, "You'll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try." Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won't work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week's words from St Paul, "I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9)." Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn't promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let's face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it's there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

Todos, en algún momento de nuestra vida, somos testarudos y obstinados, nos encaprichamos en nuestras ideas y nada ni nadie nos hace cambiar de opinión. Nos volvemos irrazonables y no escuchamos consejo alguno. Creemos que el mundo está a nuestros pies y que lo podemos controlar todo. Sin embargo, no es así. Lo podemos ver en la primera lectura de hoy. El pueblo israelita era rebelde e infiel a sus creencias. Por eso Dios dijo al profeta lo siguiente: "Te envío donde esa raza de cabezas duras y de corazones obstinados para que les digas: ¡Esta es la palabra de Yavé...!" (Ezequiel 2:4). ¿Me he rebelado contra Dios? ¿Soy obstinado en mis ideas? El mundo, la sociedad y todos nosotros necesitamos la misericordia de Dios para ser mejores, para que el corazón obstinado y rebelde se abra a la gracia de Dios tan necesaria en nuestra vida.

El poder de Dios se manifiesta en nuestra debilidad. Eso es precisamente lo que el Evangelio de hoy nos manifiesta. Aparentemente, los que escuchaban a Jesús en la sinagoga no lo creían capaz de ser sabio y mucho menos ser el Hijo de Dios. Por eso se preguntaban atónitos: "¿De dónde le viene todo esto? ¿Y qué pensar de la sabiduría que ha recibido, con esos milagros que salen de sus manos?" (Marcos 5:2). Cómo era posible que un perfecto desconocido hablara con sabiduría e hiciera milagros como Dios. Además, era hijo de María y de un carpintero insignificante. ¿Cuál es la enseñanza de Jesús para nosotros hoy? No olvidemos, con su gracia nos basta. ©LPI

Pro-Life Update July 2024

Bishop Michael F. Burbidge is the Chairman of the Committee on Pro-Life Activities of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Recently, on June 24, 2024, he issued a statement regarding the two-year anniversary the U.S. Supreme Court decision Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization which overruled Roe v. Wade. Bishop Burbidge said that this anniversary is a “day of thanksgiving to God for answering our prayers and blessing the many years of hard work” resulting the Dobbs ruling which “brought new opportunities to protect human life.” He also noted that while some states have taken steps to protect the unborn “others have enacted extreme abortion polices” and urged Catholics to “engage their elected officials on all issues all issues endangering life.” The complete statement can be found at <https://www.usccb.org/resources/24-chairman-statement-dobbs-anniversary.pdf>

Bishop Burbidge also issued a statement commenting on the Vatican issued declaration Dignatus Infinita which discussed the value and dignity of every human person. See our May Pro-Life Update for more on Dignatus Infinita .

In November of this year voters in three states will consider amending their state constitutions to expand the legal availability of abortion. Please pray that the people of Colorado, Maryland, and Florida will reject these proposals. Efforts are underway in six other states—Arizona, Montana, Arkansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Nevada—to enact laws to expand the right to abortion. We should all pray that the people of those states will vote to protect unborn life if the issue is presented to them this fall.

Our parish Pro-Life Mass and Rosary is offered on the first Saturday of each month. Please plan to join us on August 3, 2024, at 8AM to pray for innocent babies and their mothers.
