FR. ISMAEL'S THOUGHTS

As I was sharing with you about my trip to the border, perhaps the most intense experience was in our second day, when we went to Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, with Dr. Veronica Rayas, to see what Centro San Juan Diego is doing in one of the poorest neighborhoods in Ciudad Juarez, Rancho Anapra. First, we assisted a group of young people who were helping a young mother and her child who were suffering from domestic abuse. They were given a little house so they would have a safe place to live, since in her mom's small house, 8 people already lived. We spent a couple of hours painting the house, and then, we visited an after-school program that supports young people continuing with their studies: from elementary school to college. Young people are being recruited all the time by cartels, so by having a better education they may resist falling victims to the cartels and violence, and have better possibilities to support themselves and avoid crossing the border. We were able to talk with some young people about their lives and stories.

There are a lot of people near the Mexican border from all of Mexico and Central America who are trying to get to the US; but they are leaving their families and land not because they want to, but because they are facing hunger, violence, and oppression. They would rather risk their lives for a better future for themselves and their loved ones. They would love to stay in their homes and with their family and friends. They are far from being criminals or violent people. Most of them are good people, family oriented; they are people of good moral values and deep faith. A good number of them have tried to get a visa or permit to come legally, but they have been rejected. So, the only options are to cross illegally by jumping the wall and risking broken arms or legs, or walking in the desert for days and sometimes weeks, or paying thousands of dollars to someone who may get them across the border.

In today's second reading, we heard St. James say: Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works. As people of faith, we are called to put into action that faith. If I do not have works, my faith is dead. When we know about these kinds of injustices to people whose futures are limited because of the place they were born, we can ask ourselves: what can I do about it? Certainly we can pray for an end to these kinds of injustices, but we could also support programs or organizations that help them. Maybe, as a parish community, we should work together to support Catholic Extension. That would be one way to demonstrate our faith in God.

Fr. Ismael

PENSAMIENTOS DEL PADRE ISMAEL

Continúo compartiendo con ustedes sobre mi viaje a la frontera, quizás la experiencia más intensa que tuve fue en nuestro segundo día, que cruzamos hacia Ciudad Juárez, México, para reunirnos con la Dra. Verónica Rayas, y ver qué está haciendo el Centro San Juan Diego en uno de los barrios más pobres de Ciudad Juárez, Rancho Anapra. Primero, estuvimos ayudando un poco a un grupo de jóvenes que fueron de varias partes del país a apoyar a una madre joven de 16 años y a su hijo, que estaban sufriendo abuso doméstico por parte de su pareja, a construir una casita para tener un lugar seguro para vivir, ya que, en la casa de su madre, una casa también pequeña, vivían 8 personas y no había espacio para ella. Pasamos un par de horas pintando la casa, y luego fuimos a ver un programa que ayuda a estudiantes después de la escuela, que tiene una señora, para apoyar a los jóvenes a continuar con sus estudios: desde la escuela primaria hasta la universidad. En barrios pobres de Ciudad Juárez los jóvenes están siendo reclutados todo el tiempo por los carteles y las pandillas, por lo que al tener una mejor educación pueden resistirse a caer en esa red de violencia, y tienen mejor oportunidades de mantenerse a sí mismos y no tener la necesidad de cruzar la frontera y continuar con sus familias. Pudimos hablar con algunos sobre sus vidas e historias.

Como quizás lo saben, hay mucha gente en la frontera mexicana de muchos estados de México y de Centroamérica, que están tratando de llegar a los Estados Unidos. Al igual que muchos de nosotros, estas personas están dejando a sus familias y tierras no porque quieran o por gusto, sino porque se enfrentan al hambre, la violencia y la opresión, y prefieren arriesgar sus vidas para poder tener mejores oportunidades para ellos y sus seres queridos. A la mayoría de ellos les encantaría quedarse en sus casas y con su familia y amigos. Estas personas están lejos de ser criminales o gente violentas. La mayoría de ellos son buenas personas, orientadas a la familia; son personas de buenos valores morales y fe profunda. Un buen número de ellos han intentado obtener un visado o permiso para venir legalmente, pero han sido rechazados. Entonces la única opción que les queda es tratar de cruzar ilegalmente, saltando el muro, y arriesgándose a dañarse las manos o quebrarse las piernas, o caminar en el desierto durante días y a veces semanas, o gastar miles de dólares para pagarle a alguien que ayuda a cruzar la frontera.

En la segunda lectura de hoy, escuchamos que Santiago nos dice: A ver cómo, sin obras, me demuestras tu fe; yo, en cambio, con mis obras te demostraré mi fe. Como personas de fe estamos llamados a poner en acción esa fe. Si la fe no se traduce en obras, esta completamente muerta. Cuando sabemos de este tipo de injusticias que existen, que las personas tienen el futuro limitado y condicionado por el lugar donde nacieron o donde se encuentran, podemos preguntarnos: ¿qué puedo hacer al respecto? Ciertamente podemos orar por y poner fin a este tipo de injusticias, pero también podríamos apoyar programas u organizaciones que los ayuden. Puede ser que, como comunidad parroquial, podríamos trabajar juntos para apoyar a Catholic Extension para que continúe ayudando a estas personas. Esa sería una manera muy buena de demostrar nuestra fe en Dios, de poner nuestra fe en práctica.

P. Ismael

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND

The archdiocesan collection for the education and formation of our future priests.

The Seminarian Education Fund provides support for men studying for the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Chicago. The fund helps cover the cost of educating our seminarians as they journey through the states of formation before ordination as priests. Your generosity supports these men answering God's call to a life of service for the Archdiocese of Chicago. Please use the envelopes in your packets or those found in the church vestibule for the collection of September 18 & 19, 2021. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

El Fondo de Educación para Seminaristas brinda apoyo a los hombres que estudian para el sacerdocio en la Arquidiócesis de Chicago. El fondo ayuda a cubrir el costo de la educación de nuestros seminaristas a medida que avanzan a través de los estados de formación antes de la ordenación sacerdotal. Su generosidad apoya a estos hombres que responden al llamado de Dios a una vida de servicio para la Arquidiócesis de Chicago. Utilice los sobres de sus paquetes o los que se encuentran en el vestíbulo de la iglesia para la colecta del 19 de septiembre de 2021. Gracias de antemano por su generosidad.

Dear Father Ismael and Parishioners of Blessed Sacrament,

Thank you so much for the generous donation of $1,830.50 in the 2021 Baby Bottle collection raised by your parishioners. We are incredibly grateful to you and the kindness of your parishioners for their sacrifices in making their donations during this pandemic. It is wonderful that your parish continues to believe in our Life Saving Mission and that your parishioners are so charitable.

We very much appreciate your help with the Baby Bottle Project. Since the Baby Bottle Project is an essential part of our organization's fundraising, it is an incredible blessing to us and the women and babies we serve that we can count on your support year after year.

These funds allow us to provide real, practical assistance to women in crisis pregnancies. Not only do we help them choose life for their babies, but then we are able to provide them with much needed material assistance and emotional support. We have over 3,500 appointments with women and their children every year and give away over $500,000 in material goods.

We want to express to you, Joanne, the rest of the office staff, and everyone involved at your parish our sincere appreciation. May God bless you and thank you so much for continuing to support the lifesaving work at The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland!

Sincerely, Janet Back, Manager of Fundraising

Estimado Padre Ismael y feligreses de Santísimo Sacramento,

Muchas gracias por la generosa donación de $ 1,830.50 en la colección de biberones 2021 recaudada por sus feligreses. Estamos increíblemente agradecidos con usted y la amabilidad de sus feligreses por sus sacrificios al hacer sus donaciones durante esta pandemia. Es maravilloso que su parroquia continúe creyendo en nuestra misión para salvar vidas y que sus feligreses sean tan cariñosos.

Agradecemos mucho su ayuda con el Proyecto de Biberones. Dado que el Proyecto Biberón es una parte esencial de la recaudación de fondos de nuestra organización, es una bendición increíble para nosotros y para las mujeres y los bebés a los que servimos que podamos contar con su apoyo año tras año.

Estos fondos nos permiten brindar asistencia a mujeres en embarazos de crisis. No solo las ayudamos a elegir la vida para sus bebés, sino que también podemos darles asistencia material y el apoyo emocional que tanto necesitan. Tenemos más de 3,500 citas con mujeres y sus hijos cada año y regalamos más de $500,000 en bienes materiales.

Queremos expresarle a usted, Joanne, al resto del personal de la oficina y a todos los involucrados en su parroquia nuestro más sincero agradecimiento. ¡Que Dios los bendiga y muchas gracias por continuar apoyando el trabajo que salva vidas en los Centros de Mujeres del Área Metropolitana de Chicago!

Atentamente, Janet Back, Gerente de Recaudación de Fondos

The feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross celebrates two historical events: the discovery of the True Cross by Saint Helena, the mother of the Emperor Constantine, in 320 under the temple of Venus in Jerusalem, and the dedication in 335 of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine, which mark the site of the Crucifixion.

The basilica, named the Martyrium, and the shrine, named the Calvarium, were destroyed by the Persians in 614. The Church of the Holy Sepulcher which now stands on the site was built by the Crusaders in 1149.

However, the feast, more than anything else, is a celebration and commemoration of God's greatest work: his saving death on the Cross and His Resurrection, through which death was defeated and the doors to Heaven opened.

The entrance antiphon for the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is: "We should glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he is our salvation, our life and our resurrection."

La fiesta de la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz celebra dos hechos históricos: el descubrimiento de la Cruz Verdadera por Santa Elena, la madre del emperador Constantino, en 320 bajo el templo de Venus en Jerusalén, y la dedicación en 335 de la basílica y Santuario construido en el Calvario por Constantino, que marca el lugar de la Crucifixión.

La basílica, llamada Martyrium, y el santuario, llamado Calvarium, fueron destruidos por los persas en 614. La Iglesia del Santo Sepulcro que ahora se encuentra en el sitio fue construida por los cruzados en 1149.

Sin embargo, la fiesta, más que cualquier otra cosa, es una celebración y conmemoración de la mayor obra de Dios: su muerte salvadora en la cruz y su resurrección, a través de la cual la muerte fue vencida y las puertas del cielo se abrieron.

La antifona de entrada para la Fiesta de la Exaltación de la Santa Cruz es: "Debemos gloriarnos en la cruz de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, porque él es nuestra salvación, nuestra vida y nuestra resurrección".
